A preposition should be placed before a noun or a pronoun. The word preposition expresses position before so it is improper to place a preposition at the end! This is, however, not a rule. You can use preposition to end a sentence with. Here, you will learn when you can use preposition at the end of a sentence and how you can avoid using preposition at the end of a sentence. As there is no hard and fast rule regarding use of preposition at the end of a sentence, so whether you use it or not at the end of a sentence, it is your choice. But as most people avoid excessive use of prepositions at the end of sentences so you can follow suit, and may use them only when they give strength to your language. Some words (on, off, over, etc.) may be used as prepositions or adverbs. However, everyone can't easily differentiate between preposition and adverb. So whenever they see these words at the end of sentences, they think that...
