Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fifty Years of Irish Journalism, 1911 A Portion of the following pages was written during the nine months - excepting the brief vacation interval - which I spent at the Parnell Commission in London. The Court sat four days each week, sometimes only three, and this gave me a good deal of spare time which I utilised in writing portions of these reminiscences. People in every part of Ireland have repeatedly said to me Why don't you write your reminiscences? My answer, speaking generally, for the last twenty years, has been that I had not time. Recently, however, I have had occasional short periods of leisure in which I have been enabled to complete my self-imposed task. I am well aware that the narrative is very much of a personal nature, but possibly it may prove of some interest as a picture of Journalistic life in Ireland during the troublous times to which it relates.
