I just want to be known as a clown because to me thats the height of my profession. It means you can do everything-sing, dance, and above all, make people laugh. Red Skelton All I want to do is to make people laugh, to take the word heartache out of their vocabulary Red Skelton A lot of ink has been spilled covering the lives of historys most influential figures, but how much of the forest is lost for the trees In Charles River Editors American Legends series, readers can get caught up to speed on the lives of Americas most important men and women in the time it takes to finish a commute, while learning interesting facts long forgotten or never known. Among radio personalities and television entertainers, almost nobody had a career as long or storied as Red Skelton, one of Americas foremost comedians during the 20th century. Over the course of 70 years, Skelton made crowds laugh from vaudeville to performing as a clown, and while he is best known for The Red Skelton Show and his other variety shows, he also managed a 45 year stage career, as a pantomime or one of the other characters he created over the years. Although Skelton was extremely popular in America at the peak of his career, his entertainment was also a throwback to the early 20th century, which compelled television studios to balk at the notion of continuing to air his shows...
