OTROS CAMPOS DE BELLEZA ARMADA / OTHER FIELDS OF ARMED BEAUTY (PAPERBACK)

Red Mountain Press, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Poetry. Translated from the Spanish by Margaret Randall. Margaret Randall's splendid translation of Cuban poet Reynaldo Garcia Blanco's fine collection does what translation aspires to do. It gives North American readers access to a social vision and imagination that until now has been invisible. Neither autobiography nor socialist realism, Garcia Blanco's work is shaped by whimsy in which the hypothetical becomes matter of fact. He writes, for example, about My uncle the employee who gets up at 5 a.m. as well as My uncle the unemployed who is a capitalist by profession. In Body Art he asks, in ludic spirit, why are you looking at me? This is probably not what North American readers would expect of a Cuban writer, but it is precisely what this art has to teach us. --Renato Rosaldo So, Gramsci, Marx, Stokely Carmichael and Thelonious Monk walk into a bar in Havana. a bar with the lightest of German beers. because light beers mean friend in German. No, this is not the set-up for some sort of joke. This is the fantastic world of Reynaldo Garcia Blanco. This is the Cuba I've never been to, but always wanted to go to. The Cuba I hallucinate about. This collection of poems reads like a dream journal with some of the pages missing. It is beautifully unpredictable in its balance of wit, wonder, one-liners and worldview. Garcia Blanco's cat, Tamburlaine, was absolutely right. A country cannot prosper without music or food. or poetry. --Hakim Bellamy.
