Color and life may well be symbolized by attractive combinations of paper and ink. This form is printed in Light Sepia A, made by Sigmund Ullman Co., 146th Street and Park Avenue, New York. Any general advertiser or buyer of printing who wishes to know the resources in this direction can obtain some other examples by addressing the makers of this ink. Under the title-- Big Heads --the Mergenthaler Linotype Co. has issued an attractive showing of the Head Letter equipment with which it is possible to set newspaper headings up to 36-point on the Linotype direct from the keyboard. The equipment necessary for composing large headings can be applied to the outstanding linotype with the exception of the narrow magazine machine. The descriptive pamphlet gives full details of the necessary equipment and the fine display of Head Letter faces makes a suggestive...
