ABC-CLIO, United States, 2001. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Showing that economic development and public health, often thought of as distinct, are both interdependent and dependent on social and political conditions, this book provides a new appreciation of the close relationship between microenterprise development and health in developing countries. Many of the world's poor earn a living from microenterprises, often outside the formal economy, and international practitioners have recently turned...
