

Finding, Buying and Using the Perfect RV (Paperback)

By Raymond S Laubert

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Finding, Buying and Using the Perfect RV is for the novice and full timer alike. The first part of this book is dedicated to helping the RV buyer determine what it is they might be interested in. It provides background information on the different types of RVs and then guides the reader into determining what is required, nice to have and optional. A checklist is available that will help track these requirements in a single document to make finding the perfect RV possible regardless of the type of camper you plan on being at the moment. Once you know what you want, the next step is finding it. This section of the book helps you determine if a new or used RV is right for you. Where to look for the RV is next including online and offline options. Maybe even having one custom built, it is all covered. Once you find the perfect RV it is time to buy it. Not so fast, buying an RV is like buying a house. You need to have an inspection done. This section...
