

Toxin (Paperback)

By Raynesha Pittman

Conglomerate Ink, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Dwayne Hollingswell became a rare commodity in Memphis. Intelligent, young, black, handsome, a steady income, and the makings of a successful financier in Memphis. If you met him you felt honored to be in his presence because it was like watching a unicorn drink rainbow colored water out of a rambling stream flowing peacefully through the hood. Different to the point that you d instill fantasy by naming him the 8th wonder of the world. He d known he was different since the age of fifteen. None of his thoughts and questions were ever satisfied and his mind was far ahead of other boys his age, neither bothered him. While they hid, and drooled over a magazine s big butt beauty of the week, Dwayne was making candlelit dates with money. As a spiritual man, he knew better than to love money. His grandmother had drilled it in to him, but he hadn t realized he could get lost in its Toxins as he gave money his utmost respect. With no love interest in sight, Dwayne made his nuptials with his financial portfolio....
