By K E Saxon

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When two lonely strangers meet in a bar on Valentine's Day, they take passionate solace in each other's arms, little knowing that they will soon meet again as business associates. Karen Samuels has sworn off emotionally unavailable men, deciding her time will be much better spent building her fledgling graphic art company. David Anderson, a widower of seven months is still deep in mourning and battling survivor's guilt. Determined to open the restaurant that had been his wife's dream, and on the recommendation of his best friend, he hires a graphic artist, sight unseen, to create the perfect logo. SHE knows his heart belongs to another. HE knows he could give her his heart, but he doesn't deserve to be happy again. THEY know that falling in love will only bring more agony and despair. But, FATE knows otherwise.
