Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Based on true events, DAWN is the gripping portrayal of a quintessentially English lady and her supernatural encounters with beings from beyond our visible world. In his semi- autobiographical narrative, the author W. M. Aslam recounts how he and Dawn became acquainted and having got to know each other as friends; she consented to grant him an interview. Her account is candid and terrifying and she manages to convey how it must feel to live a life in tandem with forces from the other side , some of them dark and, thankfully, hidden from most of us. Sympathetically edited by Louvisa Danielson, DAWN is by turn a horror story and revelation of a largely unseen world; its content will both inform and shock the reader. WARNING! You may want to read this book with the lights left on.
