He shows, that their faith had a powerful influence on their conduct. Among those persons, ? who performed, through faith, important services and endured severe afflictions, Moses has an eminent character. Of him the apostle writes, By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh s daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. This account of Moses shows, that he chose the afflictions of a saint rather than the enjoyments of a sinner. In our attention to this subject, it is proposed, I. To inquire what Moses, as a sinner, might have enjoyed. The words of our text imply, that he might have chosen and enjoyed sinful pleasures. It is evident, he might have enjoyed those pleasures in a very high degree, from his situation in Egypt, before he publicly joined himself to the people of God. If Moses had chosen to avail himself of his favorable circumstances for sinful enjoyments, it is probable he might have enjoyed the pleasures of sin as highly as any other person, who has ever lived on the face of the earth. For, 1. As a sinner, he might have enjoyed an high degree of worldly honor. When he was an infant, he was...
