Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 64: July 3, 1902 A mere assent on our part to the divinity of the Redeemer is certainly not the faith that Christ taught. It was something more than mere assent or acknowledgement alone - it was distinctively active in its nature; He taught us that if we believe on Him we shall do the works that He did - yea, even greater works than He did. During the few years of the Lord s life, inactivity never played a part. His whole life was work personified. His faith, know ledge, power and love were proved by works, and His command to us is that we follow in His footsteps. Paul wrote to the Church at Rome, and the keynote of his letter was that the just shall live by faith. But he meant not that acknowledgement or assent alone, which is sometimes called by the name of faith he meant the real, living power, the assurance that leads us in a godly life of obedience to the laws and ordinances of the kingdom of...
