Jakes adventure has thrills, danger, suspense, action, humor, magic, shape shifting, timespace travel, and a plot to rule the world! Will Jake and his friends save the world from takeover and free the vanishing people This is the first episode of the Mr. Weeleys Boat series. The story begins after a long move to a new house in the summer on a lake with new friends. Jake meets some boys and girls to hang out with, and a particular unlikely alien friend that evidently has mysterious and awesome powers. Something is not right with the sudden disappearances of several people lately, and the media is covering the stories while everyone begins to be scared. Very quickly, Jake will collide into an incredible journey with vortex time travel, and with thrilling excitement and epic destiny. He must face danger and the unknown with responsibility and leadership if he is to remedy the potentially disastrous situation for the world. Jake and his friends meet a boat that is from another world, and seeking their help. The Jungle contains the mystery. As the teens experience thrills and suspense, they also, time travel into a world of danger that can cannot be measured. Scepters and magic are the rules of the game, as they figure out how to save the world from a transportation and shipping economic disaster, and the abduction of unwilling slaves.
