Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Brethren of Mount Atlas: Being the First Part of an African Theosophical Story Do you know, said Gerald, the young man who spoke first, that, fond as I am of shooting over these hills, I often feel a longing to go further afield for wilder and bigger game. I had a few days chamois-hunting in Switzerland last year, and I must say that this bird-slaughter has seemed to me rather tame sport ever since. What a discontented chap you are, to be sure, said the second speaker; tired of grouching already before the evening of the Twelfth! On the contrary, returned Gerald, I m not tired of it at all. There s nothing I enjoy more; but that doesn t prevent my wanting to travel a bit. I ve never been out of Europe yet. Will you fellows join me in a trip to South Africa? I should like to go up into the Kalahari Desert and get some lions. Or stay, let s all go to Cashmere. We should get some first-class shooting,...
