Kogan Page Ltd. Paperback. Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Organizational Management: Approaches and Solutions, Peter Stokes, Neil Dudley Moore, Simon M. Smith, Caroline Rowland, Peter Scott, Organizational Management fuses normative, critical and practitioner aspects of organizational management. It provides useful and practical guidelines for planning, leading and controlling the efforts of members and resources to achieve stated organizational goals. Organizational Management is ideal for students preparing to enter the labour market. It equally helps managers who are looking to develop their theoretical understanding of organizational management. The book takes a detailed look at the key challenges, tasks and metrics involved in managing people and organizations, including leadership and teams, performance management, employee engagement and motivation, strategy and change, and organizational systems management. It brings together known models and theories with leading-edge approaches to facilitate a flexible and intuitive mindset sensitive to the political nature of organizational environments, whether public, private or third sector. Organizational Management draws on examples from authors' international work across a range of business and industrial sectors including utilities, construction, emergency services and local government.
