CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 366 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.0in. x 1.0in. It is December 1937. Winston Churchill asks a former adversary, Sean Ryan, for his help to save a woman and her son. Ryan agrees to help, but on his own terms. They, and other refugees, are being hunted by a specially formed SS unit, the Alpha Wolves. They are led by Major Krak, a psychopath, known by his enemies he has no friends as Cerberus. Ryan encounters a formidable woman, Lenka, and other rogues who have their own personal reasons for helping those trying to escape their Nazi pursuers. The rogues were born of struggle, each forged in the flames of the Irish or Spanish Civil Wars, the Great Depression or the Russian Revolution. We learn how each fought, suffered or lost those they loved. Despite their bitter rivalries, the rogues join forces in a desperate race to save as many families as they can. But, for each of the rogues the cost of the struggle comes at a terribly high price. Meanwhile, Churchill stands alone, ridiculed by governments desperate to appease the evil stealing towards them. Thus begins the story, leading up to the outbreak of war, of the men and woman who dare to challenge the Nazis. Churchills Rogue is the first in a rousing trilogy, followed by The Gathering Storm and Darkest Hour, which chronicle the bloody encounters between the rogues and Cerberus army of executioners. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
