In all the various departments of life, we are presented with abundant evidence, that the dormant energies, intellectual and moral, of our race, have been aroused, and are now exerting their influence with a power and efficiency unprecedented in the history of the world. The present century has witnessed, in the physical sciences and mechanic arts, improvements and discoveries as astounding in their character as they are important in their practical results. The resources of life have been multiplied audits facilities increased, to an extent almost beyond the powers of computation. The laws of nature have been investigated and demonstrated with a certainty, which, while it has demolished many of the cherished theories of times gone by, has thrown wide open the doors of her abundant store-house, exposed to man...
