Imagine that you could turn your ideas and knowledge into profits. How about making your passion into a business. Can you imagine that? This is possible with a content based business. There s an old saying that online, content is king. Content is the reason search engines like Google make billions of dollars every year. They help people find the information they re searching for. This is valuable only because the content is valuable. You already possess the value. All you need is a way to convert all these ideas, thoughts and passions into a business. A business that generates profits. Where do you start? What turns you on? Where s your passion? Whether it s cars, dog, cats, fitness, clothing, music or anything else under the sun, there s a market for it. Every market is filled with consumers of content. In this book you ll learn exactly how to turn your passion, hobby or unique interest into something that not only brings you joy, but also an extra income source. In time it may even turn into a full-time job. Imagine that. Being paid to talk or write about your passion! We re going to step-by-step learn how to make that inner fire become content that is optimized and valuable in the eyes of Google and more importantly the people using it. The strategies in this book can also be used for writing ebooks or running a successful Facebook page, growing a Twitter following or becoming an online authority in your field. If this excites you then you need to get this book right now. You won t find a better companion and cheat sheet...
