

Storms Over Zimbabwe: The Opcon Finding (Paperback)

By Jack Kassinger

Brighton Publishing LLC, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jack Casey has finally retired from years of service to the CIA and he and his wife, Cherie couldn't be happier. Finally, she can stop worrying about her husband every time he walks out the door; and for his part, Jack can finally pursue other interests. The Caseys plan to move to Kenya, Africa and spend retirement working with wildlife conservation. They already have a beautiful home in a lovely new area-and they are more than ready for a safari. Meanwhile, a political storm is brewing in Africa when a group of activists in opposition to the current president begin to plan a coup d'etat. President Mkipii of Zimbabwe goes from being a political hero-after helping his country gain independence from Britain-to a full-fledged dictator. The people of Zimbabwe have been stripped of land as well as their income from agriculture and tourism, and even their rights as citizens. The people have had it, once and for all, and a new man has been chosen to take over as interim president. All they need now is a little outside...
