Published by Walkabout Publishing. Printed and distributed by CreateSpaceAmazon. Here, for the first time ever: The tale that 1940s-era horror movies dared not tell! FIT FOR A FRANKENSTEIN While en route to the alpine town of Vasaria, the diabolical body snatcher Ygor stops in the village of Kotstadt to obtain a custom-made suit for his friend, the ever-menacing Frankenstein Monster. The unholy duos visit endangers fastidious tailor Klaus Hauptschmidt and his effervescent teenage daughter, Gretl . . . and prompts hijinks of monstrous proportions! MONSTER MASHER WARNING - Contains one buxom fraulein and some racy innuendo. (Nothing graphic or explicit.) Fit for a Frankenstein is a sure fit for any reader who has fond memories of the iconic Monster or for those meeting him for the first time. Its obvious that the authors of this wacky novella had a barrel of fun writing it, and their glee is contagious as they bring the lumbering, sewn-together fellow back from the dead, accompanied by Ygor (whos a real hoot here!). Share their mad journey in these fascinating pages. Youll be...
