Brand New Book. Landry Valliere--New Orleans defense attorney--never thought that an innocent bet with his law partner would turn his life upside down. All he has to do is survive in Port Serenity, Texas, for a month without credit cards or cash. Much to his dismay he discovers that getting a job with his limited life skills is going to be a challenge. It takes a couple of nights in a flea-bag hotel, and a dollop of desperation, for Landry to apply for the shampoo girl job at Sunny McAllister s salon and dog grooming spa, Double Date. Sunny s new employee is definitely eye candy, but there s something off kilter about him. Her first thought was that he was running from the law. He s too smart, too charming, too everything to be doing a menial job in her salon. And speaking of charming, add sexy to that description, and she s hooked. The truth about Landry comes out when Sunny s good friend is accused of murder and needs a hot-shot lawyer. Will Sunny kick him to the curb for his duplicity? And can a big city attorney and a small town girl have a chance at love? Of course, romances always have a happy ending.
