Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Proofs and Illustrations of the Attributes of God, Vol. 2 of 3: From the Facts and Laws of the Physical Universe; Being the Foundation of Natural and Revealed Religion If the meaning of Omnipotence is obvious, yet is this among the difficult questions respecting the attributes of the Deity, which have been much discussed by metaphysicians; and frequently, under a purposeless length: since it is not easy to see what is gained by accumulating words, and varying phrases, on subjects beyond the bounds of our intellect. I neither intend to repeat all that they have written, or to examine it. As to this class of investigations, my purpose, throughout, has been limited: and for those who desire to read more, the writers are as abundant as they are accessible. The Power of the Deity is a proposition so necessarily consequent on the acknowledgment of Him as the Creator of the Universe, that it may rank in the class of self-evident truths: it would be a waste of words to deduce it, as has often been...
