CROPS AND MARKETS, VOL. 2: JULY 26, 1924 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Crops and Markets, Vol. 2: July 26, 1924 Heavy Butcher Hogs At Chicago passed all previous price records for the year to date during the week ended July 19. Prices, however, were higher on all grades, despite the largest daily July run on record, which was also the second largest number ever received at that market. Fat sheep and lambs worked unevenly higher, due to a combination of reduced loadings and expanded shipping demand. Cattle runs for the week at 11 markets were the largest of the year, and all killing classes ruled sharply and unevenly lower. Lethargy continued to mark the demand for thin kinds suitable for further finishing, despite a meager supply. Irregular price trends marked trading in all classes of fresh meats at eastern markets, while the general tendency at Chicago was toward lower prices. Retail trade was seasonably dull.
