Narrowway Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . They pushed, and they pushed, and they pushed; now they will pay with their lives. From the Back: High school is hard, but for four seniors who have been bullied all of their lives, enough has now become more than enough. For years, they endured the wrath of their classmates, schoolyard beatings, and public and private ridicule with social media attacks from every direction. But all that is about to change as they've been pushed to the edge and then over, setting the stage for a mass murder plot of horrific proportions. As law enforcement struggles to piece together the crimes, the students have been able to work in relative anonymity through TOR and the deep web and are now ready to take their revenge on those who tormented them as outcasts. Inside Flap: The hanging body of Brian Donaldson, a well-known senior at Rosedo High School in the suburbs of Los Angeles, has been found under the bleachers of the football stadium. He was brutally murdered, his disemboweled body left hanging as a message to both schoolmates and law enforcement of something much larger and more dangerous. While captain of the football team and an all-around popular guy, Donaldson had a well-known dark side and the rap sheet to prove it. Sheriff Jim O Brian and FBI Special Agent John Swenson unite as the cryptic messages point to a sinister plot - a plot against one dead senior and several of his bully buddies - and a plot for revenge against the school as a whole. This is not a case that can be solved by Swenson and O Brian alone. It will take the work and skills of the Iron Eagle...
