Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Against the Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D. D It is one thing for a man to empty a minute blood-vessel, and another to sever the principal artery or to cut the jugular vein; one thing to have a bullet imbedded in the calf of the leg and another to have it pierce the heart or the brain. It is one thing in a building to cut a door here and to close up a window there, and another to go down to the cellar and remove the main sup ports Of the upper stories. Every system, whether material, mental or moral, manifests the distinction between the inci dental and the vital. To lose, to remove or to forsake the for mer may occasion more or less inconvenience; it may be injury. To lose, to remove or to forsake the latter means in every case destruction. We can conceive of no condition Of the human system that will permit the severance Of the principal artery or jugular vein - that will permit our neighbor to shoot us through the heart or brain. Neither can we conceive of any reasonable latitude of interpretation that will excuse Dr. Briggs teaching as set forth in the Charges and Specifications. The proofs have been and will be given that these teachings are a life stab - a life stroke at the system of Bible Truth set forth in the Westminster Stand ards. These teachings strike away the foundation support on which the Westminster symbols stand in their work for the Church as the pillar and ground Of the truth. Let me not be understood as saying that...
