Action Books, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Literary Nonfiction. Edenborg s manifesto shines brightly within a constellation that includes Bosch s garden, Spinoza s philosophy of immanence, Bataille s essays, Duchamp s artworks, Ballard s Crash, and Acker s mash-ups. Sexuality in the realm of parapornography is not a place of humanist truths and psychological meaning (a vision of sexuality that dovetails all-too-neatly with the neo-liberal vision of the atomized, rationalist self) but rather an event that destroys meaning and identity through a mechanical repetition. What I like best about Edenborg s brilliant and provocative book is that it brings into play, in an almost Blakean manner, so many seeming contraries: it s both anti-utopian and thoroughly communistic, proletarian and ethereal, a paeon to hate and shame and yet an argument for the revolutionary (and anti-social) possibilities of love, a nuanced historical overview of sexual imagery and also a glimpse into a future that seems only pulse-beats away. James Pate.
