Always empowering, often amusing and sometimes a little ridiculous, Scribble and Grin: 53 Rhymes for Inspiring Times, is all about Rhyme AND Reason! Described by an education expert as nursery rhymes for the 21st century, the poems in this book go far beyond fun. These rhymes have been created for you and your children for two very important reasons, to INSPIRE and to ENTERTAIN. A healthy mix of inspiration, insight and necessary nonsense, Scribble and Grin celebrates diversity and helps children of all ages, cultures, creeds and abilities grasp the essential ingredients of daily social behavior, encouraging them to become healthy, heart-centered adults. Humor, sharing, caring, self-expression, self-love and being in charge of your behavior are all offered with a joyful attitude and many with a big belly laugh for the entire family! A springboard for emotional expression and dialogue in a variety of situations, as well as the opportunity to tune into the sounds and structure of language, these rhymes provide parents, teachers, and caregivers with a valuable resource of timeless material. When kids are inspired and entertained,...
