LONDON: THE GREEN GUIDE

Michelin, 2013. Condition: New. The first Michelin Green Guide was published in 1926 and devoted to Brittany; now they cover cities and regions from New York to South Korea, always packed full of information on local history, art, culture and sightseeing as well where to eat, sleep and shop. The guide to London covers the capital and nearby sites such as Hampton Court and Windsor Castle, and includes walking tours, street maps, plans, and details of all the major museums and galleries.
