Excerpt: . . . to the good Engineer of the future. Had you been here on Stadium Day, Old Grad, you would have seen sights to fill your heart with joy and gladness. You would have seen things that would make you surer than ever that K. U. hasnt lost all the old pep and fight that our Alumni are so wont to tell us about with pride. At seven-thirty oclock the bugles blew all over the hill. At eight-thirty every loyal son of Kansas, every one of the oldtime thundering thousand and his brother were down at McCook Field tearing at the bleachers. At nine-thirty an old-time paddling squad toured the hill and searched every house for delinquents. Every man who was found performed the proverbial stunt of racing madly between two rows of hard-boiled paddles and thence down to McCook Field for fear of reptition of...
