Excerpt from State of Montana: Fifth Biennial Report of the State Forester, 1917-1918 The fire fighting crew should be provided with shovels, mattock, axes, saws and water bags. Upon reaching the fire, organize the crew, and select a fire boss. Attack most fires from the rear, and work along the flanks to the head. Clear a trail two to three feet wide around the fire and remove from it all inflammable material to the mineral soil.
