University Press of New England, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The brilliance of Joyelle McSweeney s poems is a given; what remains delightfully open to negotiation are its methodologies and its mien. Is she an earnest relator, using wit and gesture to tell the story faster? Or does she take the piss of her subjects, using perfected skills of mimicry and divination to exploit, spot on, their errant humanities? In her second book McSweeney finds her subjects in the long form; The Commandrine is a verse-play that in nine scenes tells the story of sailors Zest, Coast, Ivory, and Irish, and their watery run-in with the Devil. The Cockatoos Morose stirs Eliotic grandeur with Stevensian absurdity for a cocktail of delirious observation and rigorous leaps of the sort McSweeney is certain to become famous for. Crusade-dream flips like a standard. The standard / narrows to a point. And points. / Then it dips like a fern.
