Excerpt from The Dedication of Goodnow Memorial Building and Bagg Hall: Princeton Massachusetts, September 6th, 1887 We thank thee for these beautiful Halls; for this day; for the bright sunshine; for the balmy air; for this large assembly of intelligent citizens; for thy favoring providences; and for all thy blessings given to us. As an interested part of the human race we ask thy blessing upon mankind; more and more bless the people of these United States; bless thy servants our President and his Cabinet; bless our Congress, Senators and Representatives, and aid them to make good and wise laws; bless our Governors and their Councilors; particularly bless the Governor of our Commonwealth who cannot be with us at this Dedication; greatly bless thy servant who gave for the public good so much in these noble memorial halls, which do thou, O Lord, fully protect night and day; bless all this congregation, and particularly the speakers who will address us, so that they will do good to all of us. We commit ourselves fully to thee, our heavenly Father, and pray...
