By J a Gorczyca

J. A. Gorczyca, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Based on the true story of a family with overwhelming mental disorders that will inspire you to overcome your toughest problems.  Millions of people worldwide are in pain - mental pain. We have many names for this pain: mental illness, mental disorders, mental health problems. It comes in many forms: depression, bipolar disorder, anxiety, schizophrenia, OCD, and PTSD as well as Autism, alcoholism and intellectual disability. Mental illness spares none- the rich and the poor; the old and the young; all races, all nationalities. Stigma remains a major obstacle for people coping with mental disorders. Less than a third of people who have a mental disorder receive treatment. Some hesitate for fear that others will treat them differently. It could happen to you - or someone in your family. Let me tell you about my family. I want to share the story of my family s struggles in battling depression, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, anxiety disorder, alcoholism, Alzheimer s, and mental retardation. Our family has won some battles and we have lost some battles - but our family has always been...
