There is, however, a contrast between the situation in 1876 and that in 1896, which is much more important than Manley s suggestion. Twenty years ago, as now, Ohio entered a favorite son in the contest for the Republican nomination. Twenty years ago the Ohio candidate was successful in the convention, and the Electoral Commission awarded him the presidency. The national convention of 1896 is still a number of weeks away, but the Ohio candidate is far ahead of all his rivals, and his success is...
