Then they brought him to me and the King said: There is thy nephew Anadan, I deliver him up to thee; do with him what thou wilt. I brought him back to my house, and flung an iron chain round his neck and put his feet in the stocks and began to beat him and to torture him. I gave him, too, only scraps of bread and some water for food, and said to my slave, who was called Nagubil: Write down what I shall say to Anadan. My son Anadan, I set thee on the throne of honour and thou didst fling me into the mire. Thou wast to me like the goat which was feeding on fustic, and the fustic said to it: Why dost thou feed on me, O goat! with what...
