When Astrid and Alan unexpectedly find themselves on the wrong end of this common sense rule they discover a secret as old as the universe, a secret previously known to only a small group of very old friends - who would like to invite them in for coffee at a small cafe beside a flooding river somewhere north of Everett, Washington. Alan and Astrid have urgent questions but their friends don't seem to know the answers, or just don't care. They have a hard time paying attention. How much danger are they in, really? Assassin Rabbit is a unique tale of the American West and of a singularity with no artificial intelligence of any kind.
