Excerpt from Proceedings of a Public Meeting of the Citizens of Providence: Held in the Beneficent Congregational Church, March 7, 1854, to Protest Against Slavery in Nebraska; With the Addresses of the Speakers. Prayer was offered by the Rev. S. C. Brown, Pastor of the Chestnut Street Methodist Church. An address was made by General Greene, on taking the chair; Resolutions were introduced by Professor Caswell, of Brown University, Chairman of a Committee appointed for the purpose at the preliminary meeting; and addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Hall, Pastor of the First Congregational Church, A. Payne, Esq., Rev. Dr. Wayland, President of Brown University, Hon. J. Whipple, and Rev. S. Wolcott, Pastor of the High Street Congregational Church. The remarks of the speakers were received with frequent demonstrations of applause by the large and intelligent audience, which remained seated from half-past six until half-past ten o'clock; when the resolutions were unanimously adopted, and the meeting was dissolved. Addresses. Remarks of Hon. Albert C. Greene. Fellow Citizens: - The subject on which this meeting is to act is one of the most interesting and important that has ever demanded the attention of the citizens of Providence. It is but very recently that I have known I might be called upon to take part in the proceedings of this evening. I shall, therefore, ask your attention only long enough to remind you of some of the most prominent facts in the history of the slave question, as connected with the bill now before Congress, and against the passage of which we are here to protest, and I shall then leave the subject in the hands of those able and eloquent gentlemen who...
