DOWN THE DELAWARE RIVER IN A CANOE. You can run everything on the river but the Big Foul, said the teamster at Port Jervis, as he helped us launch the canoes from a gravel bank. Where is the Big Foul Below Belvidere: youll strike it in a few days. No boat can run that rift at this stage of the water. Oh, its a rift, said Moseley, standing kneedeep in the river, and packing his canoe. I thought it was a bird. Why is it called the Big Fowl It is the foulest rapid on the Delaware, answered the teamster. I know the river to Trenton: went down last May on a fresh. You can run all the rest; but youll have to carry round the Big Foul Rift. We had before heard about this rapid with the ominous name. A discussion in Forest...
