

The Witch: That Never Died (Paperback)

By Mindy Laveau

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Book description: Have a glimpse of this supposedly normal family as they go through several unusual happenings. This is a story based on true events and can guarantee a chill up the spine. About the book: This book is the story of the family that had been cursed since before they even became a family. Their fate had been sealed when the grandmother of the lady of the house decided she couldn't rest in peace with her cruel husband living in peace. How could she, after all that he had done to her? So she comes back from the grave to give her husband a piece of what he deserved. Eventually, this family in Louisiana settles in a new home and as if the wicked past wasn't enough; they come across a number of paranormal activities. Lights seemed to have a mind of their own as well as mysterious spots of blood or blood seeping would become an almost everyday life phenomenon for them. Finally, the discovery of a grave beneath the wooden floorboards of the house costs the sanity...
