Civil Liability in Criminal Justice, Seventh Edition

By Darrell L. Ross

Anderson. Paperback. Condition: New. 512 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 7.5in. x 1.4in. Close to 60,000 civil lawsuits are filed annually against criminal justice practitioners. This increasing litigation poses a significant problem for law enforcement and other personnel who must ensure they are performing their legal duties within the boundaries of case law. In brief, they not only need a working knowledge of criminal law but a firm grasp on the civil law process as well. Civil Liability in Criminal Justice provides valuable advice and protection to future officers and correctional system employees, introducing them to civil liability generally and the federal law specifically, while indicating steps that can be taken to minimize risks. The text clearly outlines the specific precedents to which both individual staff members and entire agencies must adhere and provides court decisions in common and high-liability areas. This text is one of few on the subject that combines applicable case law and related liability research, a valuable new feature for current and future policy makers and managers. It also provides an overview of current case law in high-liability areas, enhancing student knowledge and practitioner job performance. An enhanced ancillary package now offers support to both students...
