This is a remarkable story of God delivering a man out of a horrible pit (and the clutches of death) and setting his feet on a rock (Jesus). His subsequent life experiences could be the plot of an exciting movie. His eventual knowledge of and walk with God has brought Praise to his God and caused many to trust in the Lord. Stewart shares important information toward the end of the book on major depression and suicide which will be helpful to many. Depression affects about 19 million Americans every year. I highly recommend this book. - George A. Hurst M. D., F.A.C.F. Director Emeritus The University of Texas Health Center at Tyler. In answer to a feeble prayer, God, forgive me, Stewart Whittemore was snatched out of the jaws of death. I have seen the impact this Ransomed one s testimony has made on others - here and abroad - who suffer from oppression. - Chris Josephson, Editor, Bible Light Publications-Ottawa, Kansas Ransomed. is the compelling account of how a loving Father (God) rescues one man from the depths of overwhelming despair. You too like me will be overwhelmed as you witness a compassionate Father reconstruct, transform and restore this once physically, emotionally and spiritually shattered life. To God be the glory! - Pastor Philip L Did-Dell, Richmond, Nelson. New Zealand.
