Excerpt: . . . 15 In short, these bills are about addressing overlooked opportunities in our collective efforts to create good American jobs, diversify our energy supply, increase our security, and reduce the environmental impact of energy production. All three pieces of legislation are important to our environment and our economy. Therefore, I urge their passage, and look forward to getting them to the House Floor. Chairman L. At this time I will recognize Mr. Inglis to AMPSON present his opening remarks. NGLIS Mr. I. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and thank you for holding this markup. I am happy to be a co-sponsor of Mr. Udalls bill, the Global Change Research and Data Management Act. For a number of years, the U. S. Global Research Program has coordinated a successful interagency research program on global environmental change and implications of a changing climate for society. H. R. 906 continues support for this research and makes that research user-friendly for federal, State and local decision-makers who...
