Book on Demand Ltd. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 374 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.8in. This is not just extremely topical and exciting detective story, an interesting reader of any age, it is a real dive into the historical time. The young heroine, who lost all the family, even those who did not know when his waking life, a sense of connection to the dead and departed, enters into a deadly confrontation with the killer. She can not ask for help from friends who truly love her, only she could find the truth and destroy the maniac. The fragile girl of sixteen with a long braid with each new round fascinating story, with each clipped a lock of hair is becoming more formidable warrior, breaks all the stereotypes and all obstacles. She runs the razors edge, and the reader is in unremitting tension throughout the novel. Sasha is a real psychological war-investigation, brutal and uncompromising game with death, deliberately exposes itself to another fatal blow. Her killing, but it is selected from the endless traps again and again, each time becoming stronger inside, breaking its own internal barriers, going to the multi-piece goal, which it should reach in order to save the lives of others and find the truth. Yet it took the Soviet era, with its camp, deficit, naivete or permissiveness to those in power. The action takes place in an elite summer camp near the closed Siberian city, which was then quite a lot, but about which little was known, even at the time. Along with the characters the reader is immersed in the countrys history, which is now barely remember, but this event, told by an eyewitness in every detail, become even more interesting and entertaining. Kids and sports camps, which lie...
