I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

THE PROPOSED STANDING ORDERS OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS AS TO PUBLIC WORKS DISCUSSED (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Proposed Standing Orders of the House of Lords as to Public Works Discussed One other motive has been hinted at rather than asserted namely, that it may be well to check the construction of Railways for a while. As I have nothing in common with those who hold such an Opinion, it is in vain for me to discuss that question with them. I assume that the Public Works for which Acts are sought necessarily confer great benefits on society. To confine myself to Railways alone, it seems a mere truism to say that they increase the wealth and the comfort of every district which they traverse, and that to be deprived of them is to lose one of the elements of modern civilization. Hence it is that all foreign governments, by subsidies, by peculiar facilities, and by other means, aid and encourage the spread of Railways throughout their dominions. In this country alone an ancient habit of talking of these enterprises, if not with aversion, yet with something of slight, still prevails; and those who devote their talents and their wealth to the construction of these great works are often alluded to with disparagement.
