This information has been arranged in the following order: - General description of the country and of the different routes by which it can be entered. Short outline of the nature of the Government, the religion and character of the inhabitants, the currency, the military system of the country, and the career and character of the present Emperor Theodore. Reference to the Portuguese expedition of 1541, and to the places of entrance into the country which have been adopted by travellers since the 16th century. Detailed account of the routes leading from Massowah and Ausley Bay to Gondar and Magdala. Extracts from works of various travellers bearing upon the different lines of roads. A map, compiled from the records of travellers, is given at the end. The orthography of names of places, c., in Abyssinia is so indefinite, hardly any two travellers agreeing, that it has been found...
