Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a suspenseful story of betrayal, love, and obsession. Hannah s life had taken a turn for the worse when her parents died when she was just a teenager. She married young and found herself with an abusive, controlling husband and nobody to turn to for help. She would try to leave him, but Jerick treated her as if he owned her. She belonged to him and him alone, even if it was for the simple pleasure of fantasizing about killing her. When another man dared to enter into her world and her heart, Jerick vowed that he would kill her and her child. The closer she gets to real love, the more the violence escalates. She was trapped under the weight of fear. For some, finding their soul-mate is a dream come true. For others, it s a nightmare that ends in drenched in blood. This book twists, lifts, evens out, and drops us again, creating curiosity and doubt up until the last page. It s a dangerous struggle between friendship, obsession, romance, and violence; balanced between moments of bliss and moments of horror. This book is intended for mature audiences.
