Think what you like, but say nothing. I glanced round; the dusk was melting into early night; the twinkle of a lantern marked the schooner s position in the distance; and our men, free from further labour, stood grouped together in the waist, their faces laminated by their glowing pipes. Why didn t Trent get her off? inquired the captain. Why did he want to buy her back in Frisco for these fabulous sums, when he might have sailed her into the bay himself? Perhaps he never knew her value until then, I suggested. I wish we knew her value now, exclaimed Hares. However, I don t want to depress you; I m sorry for you, Mr. Dodd; I know how bothering it must be to you; and the best I can say s this: I...
