Cuddles The Cuttlefish celebrates the wonderful marine environment round the south west coast of England. The tale follows the development and encounters of a young cuttlefish. Three of the main cuttlefish characters are introduced in the first chapter. Cleo and Clive lost their first clutch of eggs in a pollution incident. Cuddles is one of the babies from their first successful brood. Cleo takes Cuddles and her first babies to the reef and shows them how and where to catch their food. She later takes them round the reef, shows them navigation marks and describes the creatures they meet. Cleo explains what the baby cuttlefish can eat and encourages them to play gently with other marine animals. Some of the baby cuttlefish disappear. The following day, Clive takes Cuddles and the older babies along the beach to the wreck. Clive describes what they come across, what they can eat and what could eat them. He explains how the family can get back home. The sea becomes quite rough and the baby cuttlefish are weary by the time they reach their...

Reviews

Excellent e-book and useful one. It is written in straightforward phrases rather than confusing. I am just very happy to explain how here is the finest publication i have got read through in my very own lifestyle and might be the greatest book for possibly.
