Flight of the Labyrinth Maker (Paperback)

By Costas Komborozos

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The labyrinth was always there, solid, unmoving, grimly transparent in its purpose. It reminded the elder of a broken-winged dawn, the failure of a new day's sun to spread its light and move high on the horizon. But time eluded his feeble grasp in this darkening dream. The hours moved at their usual dauntless rhythms while his heart yearned to make this intricate sea of stone go away. Daedalus glanced up at the timeless structure, embracing the heroic challenge of flying away from the hopelessly narrow spaces. He had built the labyrinth for a purpose. But now he felt the bare bones of logic wither as his mind teetered on the brink of utter hopelessness. There was no way out. Somewhere, a secret ocean reveals itself. It expands in a deep shadowy silence that lets time embrace timelessness. But then the ocean of silence becomes a sound that fills the sky. A man hears a loud, thunderous echo. It is a fierce, majestic noise, penetrating every quiet, remote distance in sight. The sun slowly appears from behind a wing-shaped cloud, letting...
