A Father's Sexting Teen provides surprising details about the story of Brian Hunt, a father who courageously defended his 13-year-old son, after the teenager made national headlines and faced felony child pornography charges and the possibility of having to register as a sex offender for sexting when he sent via cell phone an explicit image of a female student. Now, for the first time, Brian Hunt publicly unveils the dramatic and compelling account of his media-based defense strategy to protect his son and also help other parents and families avoid the same nightmare.
